Action taken on feedback from the Stakeholders

Based on the feedback from all the stack holders, the answers to all the question. IQAC is put forward for consideration. As well as to remedy all matters that came through IQAC in the process and it is implemented positively at the administrative and management level. Seminars are organized by the college administration for the holistic development of the students. IQAC is tasked with conveying the syllabus to the university's board of studies.

The college administration organizes various seminars to enhance the academic quality of the professors. The teachers research given is encouraged.

Various action plans are implemented for the students through various departments working in the college i.e. career guidance, NSS, NCC, SC, ST cell and cultural department etc. Students are introduced to global education by giving mini projects. Efforts are made to make students interested in research.

Teachers feedback suggestions are includes skills based programme industry computable, it should be innovative and contemporary, upgrade with the environment changes and field work should be involved in the syllabus need to job oriented course.

The various answers from the alumni and their analysis are presented to the IQAC to ensure its implementation. The Alumni suggestions are develop campus rules and office faculty, text wise extra exercise, practical education, provide global and participation certification courses related to syllabus and mini project per student per year. Upto date syllabus which is currently required in IT industry.

Academic audit by AAC every year and sent to IQAC and management from consideration.