Sr. No.	Stakeholders	Feedback/Suggestions	Action Taken
1	Teachers	It was suggested that the syllabus should incorporate advanced and research-oriented topics. Additionally, it was recommended to allocate greater weightage to practical sessions in B.Com. III.	All faculty members have been advised to communicate their recommendations to the respective Boards of Studies (BOS) at the university.
2	Alumni	The syllabus should place a stronger emphasis on entrepreneurship development.	In response to their suggestions, value-added courses focusing on entrepreneurship have been introduced.
3	Employers	Recommendations included the inclusion of group discussions and English communication skills (with an emphasis on pronunciation) in the syllabus. Moreover, it was suggested that practical sessions in the curriculum should largely utilize software tools.	Skill enhancement courses, such as Business Communication, Retailing, Communication in English, and Translation, have been introduced to address these needs.
4	Parents	Parents proposed the initiation of new academic programs.	A proposal to introduce an M.Com. program is currently under consideration. BCA programme affiliated to
